A MONTHLY LOOK INSIDE CAREY SERVICES

VOLUME 2, ISSUE 6 ♦ JANUARY 2018

A Night at Carey going green in '18

Get out the shamrocks and work on those tongue-twisting accents. A Night at Carey will be focusing on the Irish in this year's event.

The second-annual event will have the theme of "Irish Enchantment '18." It will be, appropriately enough, March 17 at Roseburg Event Center.

"As we started planning our event calendar for this year, having St. Patrick's Day fall on a Saturday made it seem like a no-brainer for an event evening with a ready-made theme," said Greg Maynard, Carey Services' director of fund and strategic advancement. "We're planning on an evening of fun and a time to recognize people who give back and improve the lives of the individuals we serve."

The recognition will be through The Carey Awards, which will be given in four categories to honor local people or businesses who have made an impact and helped Carey Services work toward its vision or seeing all people, regardless of their abilities or barriers, as empowered and equally valued members of the community. The awards given out will be: Mission Leader Award, Self-Advocate Award, Community Partner Award and Heritage Award.

The awards also are part of Carey Services' observance of March as National Disability Awareness Month.

Event tickets are $75 a person, and tables of eight are available for $560.

Annual report captures agency's 2017 success

Success comes in many forms. Carey Services' vision statement envisions all people, regardless of their abilities or barriers, as empowered and equally valued members of the community.

Client success is something the agency focuses on and celebrates. When clients succeed, the entire agency succeeds. With that in mind, you have a chance to see how the agency performed in a quick glance through the recently published agency annual report for fiscal year 2017.

Board Chairperson Steve Smithley highlights the year's achievements in his note on the cover page, and President and CEO Jim Allbaugh also provides thoughts on the year.

"Carey Services is in the opportunity-creation business," Allbaugh said. "We provide those opportunities in many ways through the variety of programs we provide for the individuals we serve, and we are working harder than ever to help those individuals become more active in their communities. The annual report provides just a snapshot of those many programs. We always are available to talk in more depth to anyone who wants to know more about what we do and how we provide services."

In fiscal year 2017, the agency provided care for 935 individuals in those various programs.

Annual Report

2016-2017

A note from the Chairperson

"It was the best of times..." The opening lines of The Tale of Two Cities by Charles Dickens may well describe and define the reality of "Times" at Carey Services and the industry in which we operate. Over the past year, Carey Services has endeavored to live up to our mission of turning abilities and barriers into opportunities, and we have seen lives changed in positive ways for those we serve.

Our "Best of Times" include being one of the State of Indiana's best nationally accredited Early Head Start programs. It includes the establishment of the Creative Hearts art program for consumers to express themselves and discover their talents and abilities. The "Best of Times" include the establishment of a new Fund Development Initiative to connect community member passions with our mission. It most certainly includes the ongoing success with the Pleasant Woods affordable housing project as well as the approval for funding for phase II called Pleasant Square. And much more...

In these "Times," the industry in which Carey Services operates is experiencing increased competition for services and competition for staffing from both profit and not-for-profit organizations in and out of our industry. Like any business, there are "Times" when it is more challenging to operate. Carey Services is responding to these "Times" and we look forward to the future!

I believe we have "Time" on our side. Carey Services constantly approaches service delivery and our relationship to meeting community needs with core values of integrity, excellence, professionalism, and service. Our ever-changing funding and regulatory environment are motivating Carey Services Board of Directors, Management Team and Staff to continue to pursue new funding sources, maximize current funding sources, and look for efficiencies when possible to accomplish our mission of "turning abilities and barriers into opportunities" for the people we serve.

I believe "It is the best of times" as we adjust to the changes occurring in our industry and nationwide. Thank you for supporting Carey Services as we look to the future.

— Steve Smithley, Board Chairperson
